Dear Mr. Hopp,

Thank you for the email. The proposal was not acceptable from our business and compliance teams, and I confirm it is rejected.

However, I respect the effort and encourage continued aggressive business dialogue to seek a resolution. In that regard, I have advised our business team to meet this week and next week, and confirm FICO will take no action during this period to provide an opportunity for the respective business teams to explore alternative business resolution.

Thank you for facilitating the business discussions.

Tom Carretta
Vice President Legal and Associate General Counsel

Mr. Carretta:

We continue to disagree with your position outlined in your letter and continue to stand by the position that we set forth in ours. That said, in an effort to preserve a working relationship between our companies, our IT Software Compliance team is forwarding a commercial proposal to your sales representative for consideration.

Regards,

Andrew D. Hopp, Esq.
Deputy General Counsel
